

Chiara Belmonte

Illustrator and Digital Designer

I am Chiara Belmonte and I am an Italian illustrator who now works full time in the world of illustration for companies and individuals. I worked for 7 years as a Graphic Designer and Multimedia Artist in a gaming and software company, dealing with both print / advertising and web graphics. For 5 months I have been dealing with illustrative projects in collaboration with Brands, companies, hotels, clothing and individuals. I am used to working in stressful conditions and with short-term deadlines, I consider myself curious and creative both from an operational and a learning point of view..
